

I am concerned about Sinclair Broadcasting preempting local programming on the public airwaves to screen a film which is clearly a form of political advertising for the Bush campaign. This is in clear violation of federal regulations.